To Whom It May Concern:

We have just recently purchased our first home in Fremont with Jason's help. Our house hunting experience has been both exciting and educating. We have learned so much house buying knowledge from Jason as he walked us through every detail of the process.

As a first time home buyer, we were so afraid of making the wrong decisions which could have long-term effects on our biggest investment. But, Jason shared his experience and expertise with us to make sure that everything goes smoothly. He has gone far and beyond his duties as our realtor to watch out for our best interests. We could not be any happier with his services and care.

Jason is highly recommended and can help anyone with buying or selling real estate. He worked very hard for us, and I am sure he will work hard for you as well.

Thank you, Jason!

Sincerely,
