"Bill provided the ammunition necessary to convince the short-sale lender the property was priced correctly; thus an accurate reflection of the market conditions. “My brother and I just happened to walk into Stella’s office on a Saturday morning. She gave us the grand tour of Newport and we found our home that day! Stella was organized, friendly and professional. Coming from New York, I was unfamiliar with the process, but Stella made it fun and easy. I would highly recommend her.
