

Ann Freeman

EXPERIENCE YOU CAN TRUST

Ann Freeman is the local Realtor you can trust to get the job done! Ann Freeman, raised here on the Monterey Peninsula, comes from a family of Realtors. Her Auntie, Gail Szafran, owned and operated Tri-City Real Estate and Insurance with five offices on the Peninsula and Salinas for thirty- three years. Ann started working in the family real estate office while attending Monterey Peninsula College and received her real estate license in 1994. Ann offers years of experience, follow through and good listening skills. Her knowledge also comes from her own personal experience of selling and purchasing as an investor with her husband. Ann and her husband have four children and one granddaughter. Ann is vested here and believes that this is one of the best places to own real estate.

Hard working, straight forward, honest and driven to achieve the goals of her clients, Ann Freeman strives to represent the best in the Real Estate industry. Her business mostly comes from referrals and repeat clients which she feels is the greatest compliment she can receive as a Realtor. Her team includes Chad Hawker with Princeton Mortgage and Lisa Connally with Old Republic Title Company. You can count on Ann Freeman to do what it takes to get the results you want.
