

Home Evaluation

Rebecca, Alan and their team of professionals visit your home to determine what work needs to be done.

Our personal Project Manager will provide you with a comprehensive proposal – complete with detailed bids from our qualified vendors, – for your approval or modification before any work begins. The home-selling process can be complex and stressful if not managed properly. While each transaction is different, every homeowner wants the same thing – the best possible price with the least amount of hassle. Whether you are looking to do a full remodel or some minor fixes, our team is knowledgeable about which upgrades will bring you the most return on investment.
