Terms you should know

▼ AMENDMENTS

A change—either to alter, add to, or correct—part of an agreement without changing the principal idea or essence.

▼ APPRAISAL

An estimate of value of property resulting from analysis of facts about the property; an opinion of value.

▼ ASSUMPTION

Taking over another person's financial obligation; taking title to a property with the Buyer assuming liability for paying an existing note secured by a deed of trust against the property.

▼ BENEFICIARY

The recipient of benefits, often from a deed of trust; usually the lender.

▼ CLOSE OF ESCROW

The date the documents are recorded and title passes from Seller to Buyer. On this date, the Buyer becomes the legal owner, and title insurance becomes effective.

▼ CLOUD ON TITLE

A claim, encumbrance, or condition that impairs the title to real property until disproved or eliminated through such means as a quitclaim deed or a quiet title legal action.

▼ COMPARABLE SALES

Sales that have similar characteristics as the subject property, used for analysis in the appraisal. Commonly called "comps."

▼ DEED OF TRUST

An instrument used in many states in place of a mortgage.

▼ DEED RESTRICTIONS

Limitations in the deed to a property that dictate certain uses that may or may not be made of the property.

▼ EARNEST MONEY DEPOSIT

▼ EASEMENT

A right, privilege or interest limited to a specific purpose that one party has in the land of another.

▼ HAZARD INSURANCE

▼ IMPOUNDS

A trust type of account established by lenders for the accumulation of borrower's funds to meet periodic payments of taxes, mortgage insurance premiums and/or future insurance policy premiums, required to protect their security.

▼ LEGAL DESCRIPTION

A description of land recognized by law, based on government surveys, spelling out the exact boundaries of the entire piece of land. It should so thoroughly identify a parcel of land that it cannot be confused with any other.

▼ LIEN

A form of encumbrance that usually makes a specific property the security for the payment of a debt or discharge of an obligation. For example, judgments, taxes, mortgages, deeds of trust.

▼ MORTGAGE

The instrument by which real property is pledged as security for repayment of a loan.

▼ PITI

A payment that combines Principal, Interest, Taxes, and Insurance.

▼ POWER OF ATTORNEY

▼ QUITCLAIM DEED

A deed operating as a release, intending to pass any title, interest, or claim which the grantor may have in the property, but not containing any warranty of a valid interest or title by the grantor.

▼ RECORDING

▼ LISTING AGENT

▼ BUYER'S AGENT

A key role of the buyer's agent or broker is to work with the buyer to locate a suitable property and negotiate a successful home purchase.

▼ ESCROW OFFICER

An escrow officer leads the facilitation of your escrow, including escrow instructions preparation, document preparation, funds disbursement, and more.

The Life of an Escrow

Understanding your escrow transaction

Your escrow professional will:

- ▼ Open escrow and deposit your good faith funds in a separate escrow account
- ▼ Order a title search to determine ownership and status of the subject property
- ▼ Issue a preliminary report and begin the process to delete or record items to provide clear title to the property
- ▼ Per contract, confirm that the lender has determined you, the Buyer, are qualified for a new loan
- ▼ Meet all deadlines as specified in the contract
- ▼ Request payoff information for the Seller's loans, other liens, homeowner's association fees, etc.
- ▼ Prorate fees, such as property taxes, per the contract, and prepare the settlement statement
- ▼ Set separate appointments allowing the Seller and you to sign documents and deposit funds
- ▼ Review documents ensuring all conditions and legal requirements are fulfilled; request funds from lender
- ▼ When all funds are deposited, record documents with the County Recorder's Office to transfer the subject property to you
- ▼ After the recordation is confirmed, close escrow and disburse funds, including Seller's proceeds, loan payoffs, etc.
- ▼ Prepare and send final documents to all parties involved

▼ WHAT IS AN ESCROW?

The escrow is the process of having a neutral party manage the exchange of money for property. The escrow holder is known as an escrow or settlement officer or agent. The Buyer deposits funds and the Seller deposits a deed with the escrow officer along with all of the other documents required to remove all "contingencies" (conditions and approvals) in the purchase agreement. The escrow officer will follow a frequently traveled path to close the escrow, using their highly honed navigation skills. The path is fraught with typical, atypical, and sometimes unique hurdles. Your escrow officer will look to you, your agents, and the Seller for help in overcoming the hurdles necessary to close escrow on the date you and your Seller agree upon.

▼ HOW IS AN ESCROW OPENED?

Once a purchase agreement is ratified, the agent representing the party who will pay the fee selects an escrow holder and the Buyer's earnest money deposit and contract are submitted. From this point, the escrow holder will follow the mutual written instructions of the Buyer and Seller, maintaining a neutral stance to ensure that neither party has an unfair advantage over the other. The escrow holder also follows the instructions of the Buyer's new lender, the Seller's existing lender, and both agents. The escrow holder ensures the transparency of the transaction, while carefully maintaining the privacy of the consumers.

Understanding Title Insurance

The title industry and title insurance in brief

Prior to the development of the title industry in the late 1800s, a homebuyer received a grantor's warranty, attorney's title opinion, or abstractor's certificate as assurance of home ownership. The buyer relied on the financial integrity of the grantor, attorney, or abstractor for protection. Today, title insurance companies are regulated by state statute. They are required to post financial guarantees to ensure that any claims will be paid in a timely fashion. They also must maintain their own "title plants" which house duplicates of recorded deeds, mortgages, plats, and other pertinent county property records.

▼ WHAT IS TITLE INSURANCE?

Title insurance provides coverage for certain losses due to defects in the title that occurred prior to your ownership. The Seller can give only those rights that previously have been received with "good title." Title insurance protects against defects such as prior fraud or forgery that might go undetected until after closing and possibly jeopardize your ownership and investment.

▼ WHY IS TITLE INSURANCE NEEDED?

Title insurance assures Buyers that they are acquiring marketable title from the Seller. It is designed to reduce risk or loss caused by defects in title from the past. A Loan Policy of Title Insurance protects the interest of the mortgage lender, while an Owner's Policy protects the equity of you, the Buyer, for as long as you or your heirs own the property.

▼ WHEN IS THE PREMIUM DUE?

You pay for your Owner's title insurance policy only once, at the close of escrow. Who pays for the Owner's Policy and Loan Policy varies depending on local customs. The Owner's Policy has a perpetual term and provides coverage for as long as you are in a position to suffer a loss.

The importance of title protection

There are many title issues that could cause you to lose your property or your mortgage investment. Even the most careful search of public records may not disclose the most dangerous threat: hidden risks. These issues may not be uncovered until years later. Without title insurance from a reputable and financially solvent company, your ownership of your home could be jeopardized. With the proper insurance, your covered rights will be defended in court. Here are some examples of issues that may occur.

- ▼ Deeds by persons supposedly single, but secretly married
- ▼ Deeds delivered after death of grantor/grantee, without consent of grantor
- ▼ Deeds in lieu of foreclosure given under duress
- ▼ Marital rights of spouse purportedly, but not legally, divorced
- ▼ Impersonation of the true owner of the land
- ▼ Deeds by minors
- ▼ Deeds by persons of unsound mind
- ▼ Deeds to or from defunct corporations
- ▼ Defective acknowledgements by notaries
- ▼ Duress in execution of instruments
- ▼ Erroneous reports furnished by tax officials
- ▼ Forged deeds, releases, etc.
- ▼ Misrepresentation of will
- ▼ Mistakes in recording legal documents
- ▼ Surviving children omitted from will
- ▼ Administration of estate of persons absent but not deceased
- ▼ Birth or adoption of children after date of will
- ▼ Claims of creditors against property sold by heirs or devisees
- ▼ Deed of community property recited to be separate property
- ▼ Deeds by foreign parties

How title insurance differs from other forms of insurance

Unlike other forms of insurance, title insurance works to prevent your losses. Your one-time fee pays for the labor-intensive work of finding and resolving title issues that could threaten your homeownership. By curing problems up front, you have the peace of mind that your title risk is effectively reduced. In contrast, insurance based on loss assumption (such as auto or property and casualty insurance) requires little upfront work because claims cannot be predicted or prevented, and premium funds are needed only in the event of an accident or other covered issue. These types of insurance also require annual coverage payments, unlike title insurance which is paid for only once upon the purchase of your home or establishment of a new mortgage.

The man on the right is wearing a blue and white striped polo shirt. They are both smiling and looking towards each other. What happens next for the Buyer?

▼ IDENTITY STATEMENT

You will be asked to fill out an Identity Statement that enables our title department to distinguish you from others with identical names during our search of County records. It also provides basic information that will be useful to your escrow officer.

▼ HOME LOAN

Unless you are paying cash, assuming a loan, or the seller is financing, you will need to apply for a home loan if you have not already done so. Apply as soon as possible to comply with the purchase contract and to avoid delaying the closing.

▼ RESPONSE TO SELLER'S NOTICES

If directed by the contract, you may receive the following items which require a response from you:

- ▶ Seller's property disclosure statement listing any existing problems known to the seller
- ▶ Information pertaining to the Homeowners Association (HOA) or Planned Unit Development (PUD), such as Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CC&Rs), if applicable
- ▶ Flood hazard disclosure if the property is in a flood area
- ▶ Independent inspections, such as termite and septic, and any repairs as required

▼ PRELIMINARY REPORT

You will receive a copy of the preliminary report when we complete the title search. If you have questions about the preliminary report, contact your real estate agent or your escrow officer.

▼ CONSIDER THIS

One escrow transaction could involve over 20 individuals, including real estate professionals, Buyer, Seller, attorney, escrow officer, escrow technician, title officer, loan officer, loan processor, loan underwriter, home inspector, termite inspector, insurance agent, home warranty representative, contractor, roofer, plumber, pool service, and so on. And often one transaction depends on another.

When you consider the number of people involved, you can imagine the opportunities for delays and mishaps. While your experienced real estate professional, escrow, and title team can't prevent unforeseen problems from arising, they can help to ensure as smooth a closing as possible.

Your Preliminary Report

The information below is to help you understand the contents of the preliminary report you will receive from First American.

Schedule A

This is the information submitted to our title department by the escrow officer. It contains the basic information given to us by the Buyer or real estate professional, such as the legal description of the property, sale price, loan amount, lender, name, and marital status of Buyer and Seller.

Schedule B

The schedule B "exceptions" are items which are tied to the subject property. These may include Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions (CC&Rs); easements; Homeowners Association by-laws; leases; and other items which will remain of record and transfer with the property. They are referred to as "exceptions" because the Buyer will receive a clear title "except" the Buyer's rights will be subject to conditions in the CC&Rs, recorded easements, etc. The Buyer is asked to sign a receipt for the schedule B documents which states the Buyer has read and accepts the contents.

Requirements

These are items that First American needs to delete and/or record in order to provide a clear title to the property. Items that need to be addressed include:

- ▶ Current property-tax status
- ▶ Any assessments that are owed, such as those for a Homeowners Association
- ▶ Any encumbrances (or liens) on the property

Sometimes items show up against a property because another person has a name similar to an involved party. This is one reason we ask for an Identity Statement, to determine if items are inaccurate and can be deleted.

Note

This information is provided by the County Recorder's Office and is not intended as legal advice. It specifies the proper size, margins, and print type to be used on documents to be recorded.

What to avoid during the closing process

Avoid changing jobs

A job change may result in your loan being denied, particularly if you are taking a lower-paying position or moving into a different field. Don't think you're safe because you've received approval earlier in the process, as the lender may call your employer to re-verify your employment just prior to funding the loan.

Avoid switching banks or moving your money to another institution

After the lender has verified your funds at one or more institutions, the money should remain there until needed for the purchase.

Avoid paying off existing accounts unless your lender requests it

If your Loan Officer advises you to pay off certain bills in order to qualify for the loan, follow that advice. Otherwise, leave your accounts as they are until your escrow closes.

Avoid making any large purchases

A major purchase that requires a withdrawal from your verified funds or increases your debt can result in your not qualifying for the loan. A lender may check your credit or re-verify funds at the last minute, so avoid purchases that could impact your loan approval.

Closing your escrow

▼ THE CLOSING OR SIGNING APPOINTMENT

- ▶ The escrow holder will contact you or your agent to schedule a closing or signing appointment. In some states, this is the "close of escrow." In some others, the close of escrow is either the day the documents record or that funds are disbursed. Ask your escrow holder if you would like clarification about your state's laws.
- ▶ You will have a chance to review the settlement statement and supporting documentation. This is your opportunity to ask questions and clarify terms. You should review the settlement statement carefully and report discrepancies to the escrow officer. This includes any payments that may have been missed. You are responsible for all charges incurred even if overlooked by the escrow holder, so it's better to bring these to their attention before closing.
- ▶ The escrow company is obligated by law to have the designated amount of money before releasing any funds. If you have questions or foresee a problem, let your escrow officer know immediately.

▼ DON'T FORGET YOUR IDENTIFICATION

- ▶ You will need valid identification with your photo I.D. on it when you sign documents that need to be notarized (such as a deed). A driver's license is preferred. You will also be asked to provide your social security number for tax reporting purposes, and a forwarding address.

▼ WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

- ▶ If the Buyer is obtaining a new loan, the Buyer's signed loan documents will be returned to the lender for review. The escrow company will ensure that all contact conditions have been met and will ask the lender to "fund the loan." If Buyer's loan documents are satisfactory, the lender will send the check directly to the escrow company. When the loan funds are received, the escrow company will verify that all necessary funds are in. Escrow funds will be disbursed to the Seller and other appropriate payees. Then, you'll receive the keys to your home!

After the closing

We recommend you keep all records pertaining to your home together in a safe place, including all purchase documents, insurance, maintenance, and improvements.

▼ HOME WARRANTY REPAIRS

- ▶ If you have a home warranty policy with First American Homebuyers Protection, please call them directly and have your policy number available. First American is one of the nation's leading and most experienced home warranty companies.

▼ RECORDED DEED

- ▶ The original deed to your home will be mailed directly to you by the County recorder, generally within four to six weeks.

▼ TITLE INSURANCE POLICY

- ▶ First American Title will mail your policy to you in about two to three weeks.

▼ PROPERTY TAXES

- ▶ You may not receive a tax statement for the current year on the home you buy; however, it is your obligation to make sure the taxes are paid when due. Check with your mortgage company to find out if taxes are included with your payment. For more information on your property taxes, visit your County Auditor/Controller's Web site.
