FUN FACTS ABOUT THESE CITIES!

APTOS, SEACLIFF & RIO DEL MAR

The Mexican government granted Rafael Castro the area, Rancho Aptos in 1833. At first, cattle was raised, but in 1850 California became a state so Castro leased the land. The Americans built a wharf, store and mill where Aptos Village Square is currently located.

BONNY DOON, BOULDER CREEK, BEN LOMOND & FELTON

Santa Cruz County contains 51,776 acres (18%) of parks, parklands, or open spaces. Big Basin is California's oldest state park and was established in 1902. Its original 3,800 acres has been increased to 18,000 acres. It is home to the largest stand of ancient coast Redwoods south of San Francisco.

CAPITOLA & SOQUEL

Capitola is known as the oldest beach resort on the West Coast. Capitola is a popular tourist town because of its trendy shops and restaurants on the shore directly connecting to a fishing wharf and its large, sandy beach

EAST & WEST SANTA CRUZ, LIVE OAK & PLEASURE POINT

The Lost Boys, Sudden Impact, Chasing Mavericks, Dangerous Minds, and Us are just a few of the many movies filmed at the Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk.

Famous people such as Alfred Hitchcock, Angela Davis, Jack O'Neil, and James Durbin lived in Santa Cruz.

WATSONVILLE, CORRALITOS & PAJAROS DUNES

Watsonville is home to the annual Strawberry Festival, which includes a wide variety of strawberry based foods, live music, vendors, and rides. Watsonville Municipal Airport (WVI) is home to the annual Watsonville Fly-in and Air Show, which showcases both military and civilian aircraft and includes a small car show.

SCOTTS VALLEY, SANTA CRUZ MOUNTAINS & SILICON VALLEY

Santa's Village (opened in 1957) was off the Highway 17 in the Santa Cruz Mountains where people could visit the Petting Zoo, with sheep, deer and goats or go on memorable rides—bobsled, train, a whirling Christmas tree or what used to be the teacups.

Scotts Valley, Santa Cruz Mountains & Silicon Valley

Santa's Village (opened in 1957) was off the Highway 17 in the Santa Cruz Mountains where people could visit the Petting Zoo, with sheep, deer, and goats or go on memorable rides - bobsled, train, a whirling Christmas tree or what used to be the teacups.
